A hidden gem nestling in the fold of the Shibden Valley

For over 350 years The Shibden Mill Inn has been at the heart of life in West Yorkshire's Shibden Valley. It's a magical place where generation after generation of locals have enjoyed time well spent with friends and family, sharing in life's special moments and shaping memories to last a life time.

The Inn's reputation for warm hospitality, premier gastro dining and first class accommodation draws people to the Shibden Valley from far and wide, and the Mill has naturally become a popular choice for those wishing to savour a sumptuous weekend break or mid-week stay.

Stunning countryside walks are in easy reach, as too the bright lights and city centre shopping on offer in Leeds. From its unique location, The Shibden Mill offers easy access to the very best to be found in this delightful part of West Yorkshire. However there are those who during their stay simply wish to relax and unwind in the beautiful surrounds of this 17th Century property, where once you've arrived and unpacked, there's no reason to leave.

Whatever the occasion The Shibden Mill Inn combines first class service and accommodation of the highest order, to ensure a memorable experience that delivers everything you ask of it, and more.

Come dine with us

The Shibden Mill Inn's reputation for fabulous food extends far beyond the Yorkshire border. The culinary team has attracted wide spread acclaim for its unparalleled flair and unique twists placed on popular classics; shaping dishes rich with inspiration, quality and diversity.

Each new season welcomes a fresh menu reflecting the very best of available produce and whatever is being harvested at the time. Ingredients are sourced from local growers and suppliers who over the years have become trusted friends, whose input is vital in serving up the region's finest fish, poultry, game, meat and vegetables - food is a real 'local affair' at the Shibden Mill.

Regular specials feature, with the true star of the show being found on the plate. Outstanding quality and value makes lunch or dinner at The Shibden Mill well worth a trip; private dining is also available under the beamed ceilings of the Inn.

Simon Heaton, proprietor of The Shibden Mill is particularly proud of the kitchen team. He says: "They never fail to impress and have placed this quite remarkable property firmly on the region's culinary map. Food here makes planning your next visit a reason to reach for your diary before you've even left!"

A wonderful selection of Yorkshire ales and quality wines from around the world, including The Shibden Mill's own brew, complement proceedings.

Night night

There are 11 en suite individually designed guest rooms from which to choose, each with all that's needed to make your stay as comfortable and enjoyable as possible.

For some guests, The Shibden Mill Inn has become a home away from home, a special place where having enjoyed the rigours and niceties of the day, you can shut the door on the world and lose yourself with thoughts of what's to come.

Each room has free Wi-Fi, flat screen digital tv and all the attributes you would expect from a 4 Star venue of this kind.

A sensitive refurbishment by the Inn's owners, Simon and Caitlin Heaton, has achieved a successful marriage of 17th Century history and architecture, with modern day creature comforts.

Sleep well.
