cabernet, merl & c franc	château baron pichon-longueville pauillac, 2ème cru classé 07	bordeaux	82	173.00	opaque and dense in the glass with expressive, deep, fully-ripe berry characters on the nose. there is a lovely weight of fruit on the palate and a very nicely balanced sense of proportion. a refined impression is encouraged by finely expressed tannins as well as a distinctive mineral vein. the cabernet content here, some 65%, asserts itself well though conversely there is a lush, openness on the mid-palate. style: d cab, merlot & malbec	stellenbosch 'signature' ernie els wines 06	south africa	83	73.95	ernie and jean have been friends from an early age. as they travelled the world to promote their respective careers in golf and wine, they decided in 1999 to combine their efforts and formed engelbrecht els vineyards, where they could produce wines that would reflect their personal styles. in december 2004 they opened their newly built winery, and for them a dream had come full circle. fruitcake aromas are rounded off by a subtle oak spice to the finish. there are also distinctive earthy undertones to this 'claret'. the fruit from the aroma follows through onto a seductive mid-palate, supported by a silky mineral feel with hints of oak and backed by a sweat tannin finish. style: d cabernet & shiraz	stellenbosch 'proprietors blend' ernie els wines 09	south africa	84	40.10	this has to be the finest vintage of the proprietor's blend yet! a cool, concentrated ripening season resulted in an elegant yet resolute wine of great demeanor. the nose is finely tuned cassis, a touch of earth, graphite and meat spice. the silky structure is built like a sky-scraper, towering over a full-bodied, deeply textured palate. cabernet sauvignon and the other bordeaux cultivars produce a classic feel, with 21% shiraz adding a spicy, savoury complexity. the initial mineral impression is followed by juicy plum and black cherry flavours and concludes with a smoky coffee aftertaste. style: c corvina, rondinella...	amarone classico 'la colombaia' giacomo montresor 08	italy	85	35.00	made from a blend of corvina, rondinella and molinara grapes grown in montresor's valpolicella classico vineyards. the grapes are hand harvested at the end of october. the late harvested grapes are dried for four months (until february following the vintage) and then crushed. fermentation takes place in stainless steel for four months followed by maturation in slavonian oak casks and small barrels for 2 years. ripe, warm and generous on the nose with plum and cherry aromas and hints of dried fruits. full bodied and richly flavoured with rich berry and plum fruit, supple tannins and a spicy finish, with the characteristic dry bite of good amarone. style: c malbec	mendoza 'monteagrello' bodega bressia 08	argentina	86	30.10	there's something very special going on down a dusty track in one of the farther-flung out posts of mendoza. walter bressia - a winemaker for years, 'for other people...' as she puts it, and son walter are hand-crafting their own very intensely personal wines. there's a kind of secrecy to their source, gnarly old things, beautifully tended, but there is alchemy back at the bodega, production is tiny, pure and powerful yet elegant and aromatic, this is a deeply compelling malbec. the lifted red fruit aromas on the nose are reflected on the palate along with layers of mineral, fruit and balanced acidity to deliver a long finish, very more-ish! style: d

'we are in a unique position in that we are able to keep all parcels of our wine separate from the time of picking through fermentation to oak maturation. following some barrel maturation, each parcel is assessed, and the most outstanding parcels of shiraz are allowed further maturation before being blended to create the old adam. the concentrated, high quality parcels of fruit were fermented in open vats, then matured for 24 months in new specifically selected, extra fine grain, american oak. an additional 12 months in bottle allows full integration of oak and fruit tannin.' style: d
